Know It, Don't Know It, or Not Sure?

A quick check of where your family stands after Mom's approval. Twelve questions about what you have in hand; at the end, what you know, what's still unclear, and what to ask.

Answer yes, no or not sure. This checks how complete your family's picture is. It doesn't measure Mom's finances, and nothing here says anything about her eligibility.

1. Do you have Mom's approval notice, every page, saved where you can find it?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

2. Do you know what the notice says the family needs to keep doing after approval?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

3. Are the later letters from the Medicaid agency opened and kept together in one place?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

4. For each letter, have you written down what it asks for and any date it gives?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

5. Do you know when Mom's next renewal is, from a letter or from the agency?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

6. Are the dates you know on a calendar with reminders?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

7. Have you written down what has changed since the application: income, accounts and property, where she lives, her care setting?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

8. Do you know which kinds of changes the agency wants to hear about for Mom, and how to tell them?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

9. Do you know who you'd ask before acting on money that arrives unexpectedly, or before a major financial or legal step involving Mom?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

10. Are Mom's account statements, and a copy of anything you've sent the agency, kept together where you can find them?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

11. Does everyone in the family know who opens the mail, who keeps the folder, and who makes the calls?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

12. Have you written down your questions, with who each one goes to?

◯ Yes ◯ No ◯ Not sure

WHAT YOU KNOW

WHAT'S STILL UNCLEAR

QUESTIONS TO CLARIFY

What this doesn't do

It counts what your family knows and has in hand, not Mom's finances and not her eligibility. A low count means there are things still to find or ask, and most of them are a look in the folder or a phone call away. Nothing here is legal, financial or tax advice.
